Members of the Haddon Fortnightly and invited guests celebrate the end of the year and induction of new officers at the President's Luncheon at Tavistock County Club on Friday, May 20, with pre-luncheon entertainment by the Haddon String Trio. Mary Ellen Middleton, President, will install the following new officers for two-year terms:

| | |
|----------------------------------|-------------------|
| Second Vice President | Marie DeMatties |
| Treasurer | Joan Fox |
| House and Garden Department Head | Marge Hunt |
| Literature and Drama | Norma McGough |
| Finance | Marge Prendergast |
| Rentals | Judy Hensel |
| Social Services | Barbara Buckley |
| Trustee (three-year term) | Carmela Poulson |

Thirty-three members who have belonged to the Haddon Fortnightly for 25 years or more will be honored, with special recognition to the following who have achieved milestone membership of more than 50 years: Thelma Hall, Larry Hilbert, Alberta Kramer, Jeanne Lavery, and Katherine MacVaugh. These women set a high standard for volunteerism in our community, leading the way for our unprecedented twelve new members inducted this year.

For reservations, please call Norma McGough, 856-354-1546.

A founding charter member of the non-profit NJ State Federation of Women's Clubs (NJSFWC), the Haddon Fortnightly offers three levels of membership: Juniors (for women between 18 and 40), Evening Membership Department (EMD), and the general body of the Haddon Fortnightly (no age requirement for the last two). Our goal since 1894 remains the same: Enjoy great friendships while volunteering in a host of activities that support various charities including Gilda's Club for families fighting cancer, the Veterans' Home in Vineland, the Dooley House, and armed forces serving overseas.

Visitors are welcome to check out one of our meetings, usually the fourth Friday of every month between September and April, at 1 pm in our clubhouse at the corner of Kings Highway and Grove Street, Haddonfield. Light refreshments are served after the business meeting and program. For more information, please call Sandy Schwartz, 856-767-8408, or Membership Chair, Barbara Leap, 856-842-9615.
