FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

(Haddonfield, New Jersey)...First Night Haddonfield Announces
Four Headliners for New Year's Eve, Buttons Available starting
October 15, 2011!

First Night Haddonfield 2012 has announced a fantastic line-up of performers for the New Year's Eve celebration of the arts. The festivities will feature four headliners this year! The Amazing Kreskin, the world's foremost "mentalist" will kick the evening off, followed by Galumph, a high-energy show of choreographed acrobatics. Tommy Cash will perform a tribute to his late brother, Johnny Cash, and Searson will entertain all with their beautiful voices and Celtic rock.

In all, more than 40 different performances will take place in 20 venues in Haddonfield, NJ from 5:30 pm to midnight on New Year's Eve. KidZone at the Central/ Middle School will feature music, crafts, puppet shows, story-tellers and sing-alongs. And a family countdown with fireworks will take place at the Town Clock at 9pm. First Night Haddonfield is designed to entertain every member of your family, from young to old.

First Night buttons are on sale for $10 through October 31st, and can be purchased from the Haddonfield Information Center in Kings Court Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday from 11am to 3pm after October 15, 2011. (Call the information center for assistance or for other button outlet locations: (856) 216-7253).

More button sales outlets to be announced shortly.
