

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

February 23, 2009

Haddonfield Public Safety Director Edward Borden and Police Chief Rick Tsonis announced today the conclusion of an investigation of recent bomb scare incidents at the Bancroft Neurohealth facility in Haddonfield. Borden and Tsonis said that the individual responsible for the calls had been identified and that the County Prosecutor's office had made the determination that criminal charges were not appropriate. Borden and Tsonis also said that officials at Bancroft had been proactive in their response to the threats and that procedures had been implemented to reduce the risk of such incidents in the future.

End Release. For further information, contact Ed Borden at 609-519-4003 or Chief Rick Tsonis at 856-429-4700, ext. 248.
